

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR RESPONSIBLE GAMBLING

The Casino Association of South Africa (CASA) was founded in 2003 with the aim of creating a better understanding of casino entertainment by bringing the facts about the industry to the general public, the media, public representatives, regulators, and policy and other decision makers through education and advocacy.

CASA represents South Africa's licensed casino industry. In just eight years this new industry has been responsible for more than R12-billion in new investment in all nine provinces, adding more than R36-billion to GDP in terms of economic multipliers. The industry has created almost 100 000 direct and indirect jobs and in 2002/2003 alone, accounted for nearly R1.3-billion in provincial gaming taxes and VAT which, together with company tax, contributed more than R1.7-billion to government revenue. In addition, the casino industry has substantially advanced transformation in the tourism and leisure sector.

CASA's members are employers, property owners and taxpayers and place the highest priority on the obligations of corporate citizenship and social responsibility.

CASA and its members are committed to making responsible gambling an integral part of our daily operations at all our casinos throughout South Africa. To advance this goal, CASA members have agreed on a code of conduct which details how we fulfil this pledge.
